

Skills of the Lead Worker

The Lead Worker needs to be able to:

- chair effective, inclusive meetings focused on outcomes through agreed actions
- communicate effectively with children and families, whilst displaying the Jersey's Children First qualities
- use clear and accessible language to describe goals and actions within the plan
- use solution focused and problem solving approaches in work with families and other practitioners