Subject: RE: Areas of Questioning - Hearing 28th September

Dear Sue,

Further to my email on Friday, the Panel would also like to question the Minister about the Draft Discrimination (Jersey) Law 201-, including timescales for lodging and debate.

Kind regards,

Subject: Areas of Questioning - Hearing 28th September

Dear Sue,

Please find below the intended areas of questioning for the HSSH Panel's Quarterly Hearing with the Minister on Friday 28th September:

- Pensions – rise in pensions
- Back to Work Initiatives – including detail on the Minister's recent announcement to tighten up the income support system
- Long-Term Care Law – progress update including timescale for delivery
- Low Income Support – update on progress made with key pieces of information mentioned in the last hearing (22.6.12) including report on the components of income support in 2011 and changes to income support paperwork process
- Housing Transformation Programme – Rents & Income Support – update on progress on report looking at private sector rents and impact of fair rent rises; update on work creating a separate income support scale for private sector rentals

Please let me know if you require any further information.

Kind regards,
