eco active business network // leader application

Eco active business leaders must hold a valid recognised environmental standard. You need to prove you meet local environmental legislation requirements. You also need to produce a pollution prevention plan for each of your sites. To become an eco active business leader complete this form, the environmental legislation assessment, provide us with copies of your recognised environmental standard.

Your membership must be renewed each year by completing the annual return. The annual return form will be emailed to you and asks you to identify actions for the year ahead and record the progress you have made.

If you have any difficulties completing the application please contact us via ecoactive@gov.je
