

Use this section to declare any income that you haven't been able to enter anywhere else on the return

If you have been sent the short (4 page) return and you have to declare the following income you'll need to call us to ask for the full 8 page return.

- Self-employment income
- Partnership income
- Intermediary Service Vehicle (ISV) income
- Distribution from a Jersey company income
- Shareholder loan from a Jersey company
- Property income

Call the taxes office helpdesk on (01534) 440300 and select option 1.

Completing the 'other income' section

Once you've confirmed that you have the correct tax return and you can't enter the source of taxable income anywhere else enter a description of the income and the amount you've received in the year.

Section 7: Other income

If you have another source of income that you have not been able to enter anywhere else declare it here.

Description of your income		Description of (spouse/partner's) income
Your income	Jersey tax deducted at source (if any)	Spouse/partner's income	Jersey tax deducted at source (if any)
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

Examples of income that you would declare here include:

- Maintenance paid to you under a pre-1997 maintenance agreement (capped at the 1997 amount)
- Income from purchased life annuities
- Estate income (paid when an executor or administrator makes a distribution)