Introduction

Following an appeal by Brigham Young against a refusal of planning permission, Mr Graham Self was appointed as the planning inspector to prepare a report for the Minister's consideration.

Recommendation

In line with the recommendations of the inspector, it is recommended that the appeal be dismissed and that the initial decision to refuse planning permission be confirmed.

Detail

The Minister agreed with the recommendations of the Inspector.

The Minister also had regard to the fact that the original decision on the planning permission and subsequent inspector's report was made under the policy regime of the 2011 Island Plan (revised 2014) which was superseded by the bridging Island Plan on 25 March 2022. However, the Minister did not consider that the change in development plans made any material difference, in this instance, to the assessment of the proposed development.
