Subject: Fwd: 2017-05-02 - JIF statement v3

Date: Tuesday, May 02, 2017 10:43 BST

Dear Ian and all,

I have been informed this morning that Ian wishes to make a statement (attached) relating to the Innovation Fund (political) review this afternoon.

I do not think this is a good idea for the reasons stated in my reply (below). I do feel that the issue should be discussed at CoM first not least because because other Ministers are mentioned and part of the recommendations of the review refer to all Ministers.

To that end can I ask that all Ministers are sent a copy of the review and the matter is discussed at CoM before any statements are made in haste?

For my part I believe the review to be generally fair and representative of the facts with one or two exceptions but Ministers will want to judge for themselves.

If the CM is insistent on making a statement today or tomorrow could I at least ask for my CoM colleagues for input on the proposed wording?

Thank you all.

KR,

Lyndon.

Thank you Ian for sharing this. I am surprised that you propose to make a statement today as I have not even been able to respond to the first draft of the review which I only received last Wednesday morning (26th). I have read the draft from cover to cover and I do not think your proposed statement is completely representative of the review and contains at least one or two factual inaccuracies.

I would therefore ask that you delay making a statement until we have all had time to digest and discuss its findings?

Thank you.

Lyndon.

Current draft, I still need to add a final para, I'm intending to make it after lunch.
