Monty

John is absolutely right on this. Your email was unacceptable. Using bullying and intimidatory tactics is an appalling way for a public representative to act. Are you not confident enough in your own arguments to rely on them without behaving like this?

There should be an immediate unequivocal retraction and apology.

Dear all

Whilst I understand the perspectives you may have on the subject , copying the person in to an email that suggests he is sacked not only adds to pressure on someone I would suggest is very hard working and well respected, [REDACTED]

Article 38

[REDACTED] Monty, as an Assis Min you need to learn this - particularly as this would also be subject to an FOI request .

This is unacceptable.

I would suggest you do a new email retracting that comment, and apologising asap

Do not include this , or any other part of the chain in that email

Do copy in those you originally sent it to

Article 25

Hi Carolyn,

I think the way forward is to have [REDACTED] removed from States Employment - perhaps you and Rowland would back a proposition to this effect, and have him replaced with someone who understands the science of medicinal cannabis, who has experience in prescribing it for pain relief, inter Alia.

Kind regards,

Montfort

Dear Richard, Montford,

How are we to progress this unsatisfactory situation?

Rowland and I try to deal with our Constituents who have been waiting far too long for some progress. They had their hopes raised and now wait in pain for a resolution.

You will both appreciate continuing with the status quo is not an option. How are you progressing this matter?

Richard would you and [REDACTED] like a meeting with our Constituents so you can hear first hand the practicalities of their daily lives?

Dear Richard

Deputy Tadier, the proposer of the successful proposition legalising medicinal cannabis in Jersey has asked me to arrange a meeting with you, [REDACTED] and whoever you believe could be helpful in finding a way forward to this impasse and unsatisfactory situation we find ourselves.

Article 31

The Deputy of St Peter and I have been working with a number of our Constituents who not only live with daily pain, suffering and a fridge full of opiates, but who have had their hopes raised when the proposition was agreed by the States Assembly. We therefore also have an interest in this situation. I am asking that [REDACTED] be invited to attend to give [REDACTED] on how the States wishes can be fulfilled in the most practical way possible. [REDACTED] may also wish to comment on the notion that a proposition allowed to be debated by the Bailiff is proving to be hypothetical.

As this is the Deputy Tadier's proposition to research and pursue he should be the initial contact, but the Deputy of St Peter and I have an interest in finding resolution on behalf of our Constituents and we would be happy to attend such meeting, with or without our Constituents.

I look forward to hearing from you.
