Chief Minister, Ministers,

The RNLI meeting with representatives of the crew together with [REDACTED] is now set for 10am on Friday. I have been asked to be present at that meeting.

Leesa Harwood would like to meet you at 5.30pm tomorrow evening, if possible.

I am in possession of the details of where this is likely to go so if we can meet tomorrow morning it would be advantageous.

If at all possible, Steve suggested meeting with Mike Jackson and Roy Bullen tomorrow lunchtime.

Best,

Darren

Ian,

The RNLI and St. Helier crew are meeting at 09:30 on Friday. That means that tomorrow will be a big day for trying to get our agreed lines together.

Darren has suggested that you and I (Paul and well I expect) meet him after the States finishes this afternoon.....could we do that please?

Hope to hear,

Steve

Steve,

I'm in interviews all day today, Children's Commissioner, but if you need to speak, please text and I'll pop out to speak to you.

We are at the Grand Hotel in case we need to speak in person.

Good luck all, and thanks.

Ian

Hi

[REDACTED] from [REDACTED] would like a government comment or interview after an RNLI meeting that is apparently underway at the moment. [REDACTED] is coming to CLMH at 11am to get interviews with the RNLI management and crew.

I have said I would ask if a government comment is likely, but I also said it would probably depend on the outcome of the meeting.

Please let me know.

Thanks

Cathy

Dear Friends,

I know its extremely frustrating when you are all asking so many questions but we will be going public-i hope at least by tomorrow, if not this weekend. We intend on having as many public meetings as possible to explain what has happened.

We have a meeting tomorrow with the RNLI and will explain all asap, all I can say is our entire crew have done nothing wrong, including myself and we have been fighting to get the truth out, the public have a right to know whats gone on.... some have been trying to stop this coming out from the start due to the lies they have told, hopefully the truth will soon be out.

Hi Darren

Attached the RNLI statement. We will send this out to media immediately after the 10am meeting tomorrow. Until then, please treat it as confidential.

Many thanks
