Good morning,

The Care Inquiry recommended that careful consideration be given to a memorial (Recommendation 8), in order to remember those who were poorly serviced by the care system in the past. As part of the ongoing Care Inquiry work programme, I have been working with a group of survivors of abuse to develop a set of recommendations for the Council of Ministers. I have worked with two expert facilitators to lead the groups deliberations. Whilst this process has been challenging and rewarding the group have worked together to develop a criteria and set of recommendations for a local memorial.

After discussions with Tom, I would like to extend an invite to you to come and hear the recommendations of the group and discuss with them the next steps. The group has been meeting at the Oules Room in the Jersey Museum over three weekends May/June. To this end the group they would like to reconvene with you on Sunday 24th June at 11.00 - 12.30 in the same venue to present their recommendations.

I have attached a project brief and a news release which was used to recruit to the project. I would be happy to discuss the process in more detail, although the panel have asked me not to disclose their specific ideas as they would like to present them to you on the day.

I would be grateful if you could confirm your availability this week to assist me in my planning.

Kind regards

Andrew
