

OFFSHORE WIND

CONSULTATION

Photorealistic representation of a wind farm at the maximum anticipated scale on a clear day.
The image shows 72 x 14MW turbines approximately 16km from shore.

A visual representation of how a wind farm might appear. The picture is prepared to recognised standards and shows how a potential array of turbines in the proposed development zone could look from this location under similar weather conditions.