

PROTECTED

JCE 427

CUSTOMS GUIDANCE ON THE EXPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS

Declaring goods on export to Customs

On export household effects require a written inventory for Customs purposes as certain items are prohibited or restricted or subject to licensing restrictions. In particular goods that have a cultural or artistic value to Jersey including:

- Anything of archaeological interest found within or relating to the Channel Islands
- A photographic image from the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £500
- A painting/sculpture or any other items manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £6000
- A print or any other item of silver more than 50 years old not exceeding a value of £1000
- Any furniture /clock manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £3000
- Any book manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £1000
- Any manuscript, map, architectural, scientific, engineering drawings manufactured/produced in the Channel Islands and more than 50 years old

Other goods

Firearms if exported outside the British Islands.

Any Animal/plant, whether dead or alive, or derivatives thereof, of a species listed in Appendices 1-3 of the Endangered Species (Jersey) Law 2012.

For further details on the prohibitions and restrictions in place on export from Jersey, please contact the States of Jersey Customs and Immigration Service on telephone number 448000 or refer to the website at:

<http://www.gov.je/Travel/InformationAdvice/ImportsExports/Pages/Exports.aspx>

PROTECTED

JCE 427

CUSTOMS GUIDANCE ON THE EXPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS

Declaring goods on export to Customs

On export household effects require a written inventory for Customs purposes as certain items are prohibited or restricted or subject to licensing restrictions. In particular goods that have a cultural or artistic value to Jersey including:

- Anything of archaeological interest found within or relating to the Channel Islands
- A photographic image from the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £500
- A painting/sculpture or any other items manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £6000
- A print or any other item of silver more than 50 years old not exceeding a value of £1000
- Any furniture /clock manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £3000
- Any book manufactured in the Channel Islands more than 50 years old and exceeding a value of £1000
- Any manuscript, map, architectural, scientific, engineering drawings manufactured/produced in the Channel Islands and more than 50 years old

Other goods

Firearms if exported outside the British Islands.

Any Animal/plant, whether dead or alive, or derivatives thereof, of a species listed in Appendices 1-3 of the Endangered Species (Jersey) Law 2012.

For further details on the prohibitions and restrictions in place on export from Jersey, please contact the States of Jersey Customs and Immigration Service on telephone number 448000 or refer to the website at:

<http://www.gov.je/Travel/InformationAdvice/ImportsExports/Pages/Exports.aspx>